TANGO

FOR SENIORS

Meeting of the week

First Workshop

Tango for singing and dancing

We have been working in the EHPADs for 8 years, in association with the University of Burgundy and Inserm, to bring them this workshop of Music and Movement based on Tango, and we know that they love it.

A recreation of 25 minutes

On a telephone, tablet, computer or, if you can, television.

They'll watch it, that's for sure They'll sing ; it's almost certain ; They'll move and perhaps dance, even sitting down They can watch and replay With all the team, we are preparing the second episode

Winner of the week

The most wonderful reaction

Rosa, 92 years old

Thank you with castanets

To find out what you think of this way of communicating with you, we have opened this email address... A prize for the best testimony.

This week, it is Rosa Lima de Martinez, at Champmaillot, who has won. We filmed her 35 years ago, we have found her again full of energy and the joy of life.

Two partners support the project.

Le Cassis Boudier and the Chocolaterie de Bourgogne are sending out more and more to the best testimonials.

The floor is theirs

Follow their advice

From the Residence Nuevo Estilo in Buenos Aires (Argentina), Clarissa Machado, tangothérapeute with this project shares the recommendations of the seniors there. From the land of Tango they are good advisors.

With the support of G rontop le Pierre Pfitzenmeyer and the Fonds Transmission et Fraternit  (Transmission and Fraternity Fund)
