To know what you think of our way of communication with you we have opened an email address.... A prize for the best testimony.

Winners of the week

"La Maison du Soleil" (Isatis) at Aubervilliers

For the joy of sharing the notes and the movements

This week they are Luce, Director of the home, and Margaux psychomotor therapist, who led 4 workshops in the rooms which were a great success.

Bravo to Jérémy and Arnaud, as well as to Mr Nadaud; the latter is blind and he immediately reacted to the music and did the exercises which Margaux described to him.

Two partners support the project.

Le Cassis Boudier and the Chocolaterie de Bourgogne are sending out more and more to the best testimonials.

They said...

From San Francisco

Simone Lewis, 92 ans

A member of Peninsula Volunteers, the association is a partner of the project, Simone Lewis used to volunteer each week so that the residents in the Rosener House Day Care Centre would dance.

In this time of confinement, she talks about it retrospectively while sharing the project's news, almost daily, on social networks. In the heart of Silicon Valley, Simone testifies...

" I remember Larry who didn't want to dance at all. In September, when Clarissa came, she invited him to dance the tango.

During my last visit, I had the great surprise and joy to see Larry participate. I will try to find out if, with your videos, he dances in his living room. "

To be continued with Simone, and the whole Rosener House team ...

With the support of G rontop le Pierre Pfitzenmeyer and the Fonds Transmission et Fraternit  (Transmission and Fraternity Fund)
